

When the people arrived, and for an endless time after, they lived within the Circle, and were one of many kinds of beings.

And the people grew, and their heads grew very large
They began to dig in Earth's soil, and grow plants.

Man discovers His Place at the Center and gives himself dominion over Earth

Man decides he has become SuperNatural. There is only
Man and Resources.

Man reasons himself outside the Circle.